General information

The NWOGCSA Legacy award offers education aid to the children of NWOGCSA members. This scholarship will be available for high school graduates that are pursuing a college education in an area of study other than Turfgrass Management. There will be scholarships available up to $1000.00 for dispersal based on the NWOGCSA board's decision.

The NWOGCSA Board will review applicants. The decision process will be completely anonymous with the board not knowing the applicants name until the final decision is reached. The board's decision will be final. All scholarship award checks will be made out to the applicant to be used for education expenses only.
